

Call for open position in TRIAL International – Office in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Position: Legal Advisor

Duration: August 12th 2019 – March 31st 2020, with possibility of extension (80% working time)

Job description:

- Write submissions/complaints on grave human rights violations before domestic courts and international bodies;
- Provide advices and answers, as well as information related to BiH legislation and international legal standards for human rights;
- Conduct comprehensive researches and prepare legal analysis related to the various issues that the association deals with;
- Follow the implementation of activities related to all legal affairs and legal activities of the association;
- Arrange the priorities and strategies for the association's activities together with the Head of the Program and other members of the team;
- Assist in the production of project proposals and strategic plans required for TRIAL International's work, in cooperation with other team members;
- Represent the work of the association to different actors at different levels and on events organized within and outside of the country;
- Appear in media on behalf of the association;
- Participate in the implementation of the association's activities;
- Communicate and respond to his/her supervisors, including the Head of Program in BiH and/or the Director of the association;
- Perform other duties stated by the Head of Program in BiH and/or the Director of the association;
- Responsible for his/her work to the Head of Program in BiH and/or the Director of the association

Conditions, qualifications and work experience:

- Education: Law degree obtained in Bosnia and Herzegovina, strong knowledge of human rights law and international criminal law, LL.M. in International Law will be considered as an asset;

- Work experience: A minimum of 2 years of professional experience relevant to the position;
- Languages: One of the official languages of Bosnia and Herzegovina as a mother tongue, strong fluency in written and oral English;
- Other: Strong documentation, writing and advocacy skills, a demonstrated commitment and dedication to human rights, possession of a valid driving license.

Process of the application:

If you are interested in this position, apply by July 8th 2019, by sending necessary documents to the e-mail address: bh@trialinternational.org titled “Application for Legal Advisor Position”.

- Motivational letter;
- CV;
- Letter of recommendation or name of the contact person for recommendations;
- Optionally: A brief legal writing sample (academic paper, policy brief or memo, news article, blog post or web content).

Only complete applications will be reviewed and only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Information about the organization:

TRIAL International is a non-governmental organization fighting against impunity for international crimes and supporting victims in their search for justice. The organization provides legal aid, files cases, develops local capacities and advocates the human rights agenda.

For more information, visit the TRIAL International website at: www.trial.ba and www.trialinternational.org and FB page.