

Call for open position in TRIAL International – Office in Bosnia and Herzegovina

Position: Legal Advisor (Full time position), based in Sarajevo

Job description:

- Write submissions/complaints on grave human rights violations before domestic courts and international bodies;
- Provide advices and answers, as well as information related to BiH legislation and international legal standards for human rights;
- Conduct comprehensive researches and prepare legal analysis related to the various issues that the association deals with;
- Follow the implementation of activities related to all legal affairs and legal activities of the association;
- Arrange the priorities and strategies for the association's activities together with the Head of the Program and other members of the team;
- Assist in the production of project proposals and strategic plans required for TRIAL International's work, in cooperation with other team members;
- Represent the work of the association to different actors at different levels and on events organized within and outside of the country;
- Appear in media on behalf of the association;
- Participate in the implementation of the association's activities;
- Communicate and respond to his/her supervisors- the Senior Legal Advisor and the Head of Program in BiH;
- Perform other duties stated by the Senior Legal Advisor and Head of Program in BiH;
- Responsible for his/her work to the Senior Legal Advisor and the Head of Program in BiH;

Conditions, qualifications and work experience:

- Education: Law degree obtained in Bosnia and Herzegovina, strong knowledge of human rights law and criminal law; knowledge in the area of transitional justice with emphasis on reparations, LL.M. in International Law will be considered as an asset;
- Work experience: A minimum of 3 years of professional experience relevant to the position;

- Languages: One of the official languages of Bosnia and Herzegovina as a mother tongue, strong fluency in written and oral English;

Other:

- Sensibility in work with vulnerable groups is very important;
- Strong documentation, writing and advocacy skills, a demonstrated commitment and dedication to human rights, possession of a valid driving license.

Process of the application:

If you are interested in this position, apply by September 9th 2021, by sending necessary documents to the e-mail address: bh@trialinternational.org titled "Application for Legal Advisor Position".

- Motivational letter;
- CV;
- Optionally: A brief legal writing sample (academic paper, policy brief or memo, news article, blog post or web content).

Note: Only complete applications will be reviewed and only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Information about the organization:

TRIAL International is a non-governmental organization fighting against impunity for international crimes and supporting victims in their search for justice. The organization provides legal aid, files cases, develops local capacities and advocates the human rights agenda.

For more information, visit the TRIAL International website at: www.trial.ba and www.trialinternational.org and FB pages.