

October 28th, 2024

TRIAL International: CALL FOR EVALUATOR

Terms of Reference

Project: Evaluation of “Ensuring conflict-related sexual violence (CRSV) survivors rights on justice and redress in Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH) are advanced in accordance with international standards” and “Ensuring that the dignity and rights of wartime sexual violence survivors are respected in legal proceedings in Bosnia and Herzegovina (BiH) in accordance with international standards” projects.

Objective: To conduct a comprehensive evaluation encompassing the current two-year project and previous two-year initiatives funded by the UK government. This evaluation will highlight projects achievements, relevance, and impact, providing evidence-based insights and outlining priorities for future support of CRSV survivors

Engagement timeframe:

Start Date: 11 November 2024

Draft Report: 31 December 2024

Final Report: 31 January 2025

Expected Deliverables:

Evaluation Report: A detailed report no longer than 25 pages evidencing the project’s achievements, relevance, and impact with clear recommendations on future focal areas aligned with set projects outcomes.

Required qualifications:

- Proven track record in evaluating international donor-funded projects, with a preference for experience in human rights, rule of law, or transitional justice in BiH

- Demonstrated experience and knowledge of relevant stakeholder in BiH, particularly within the judiciary, government, international community, civil society and particularly victims' associations
- Familiarity with TRIAL BIH's core focus areas, including transitional justice, dealing with the past, and particularly access to justice and reparation pillars
- In-depth understanding of the BiH context and knowledge of BiH legislation related to the above-mentioned issues, and particularly context in which civil society organizations operate in BiH, which deal with the protection of human rights
- Exceptional analytical, writing and communication skills
- Strong communication skills
- Fluency in BCS and English (spoken and written)
- Demonstrated availability and flexibility for the mandate of the engagement
- Social science university degree preferred

Application Requirements:

Cover Letter and CV: Please provide a cover letter and CV that clearly outline education, experience, and specific qualifications relevant to the evaluation. If more than one person is applying, include a CV for each individual applicant to ensure all qualifications are adequately represented.

Evidence of Similar Work: Examples of past evaluations.

Proposed Methodology: A clear outline of your proposed approach and methodology for conducting this evaluation.

Please submit your application no later than 6th November 2024, to the following e-mail: bh@trialinternational.org

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION: TRIAL International is a non-governmental organization fighting against impunity for international crimes and supporting victims in their search for justice. The organization provides legal aid, files cases, develops local capacities and advocates the human rights agenda. Since 2007, TRIAL International has been implementing the program in Bosnia and Herzegovina, through a local branch office. The TRIAL International Office in BiH has the same goals as the rest of the organization and legally functions as local branch whose seat is in Sarajevo. For more information, visit TRIAL International website at: www.trial.ba and www.trialinternational.org, and FB page.